FOURTH ANNUAL HUDSON FERRY-GO-ROUND TO TAKE PLACE
SUNDAY, SEPT. 16, WITH FOUR TOWNS PARTICIPATING

Haverstraw, Peekskill, Ossining, Tarrytown to host special events

VALHALLA, N.Y. (June 14) – The Hudson Ferry-Go-Round will return to the Hudson Valley on Sunday, Sept. 16, offering high-speed ferries linking Haverstraw, Peekskill, Ossining and Tarrytown, all of which will be hosting exciting special events open to the public, sponsor Ginsburg Development Companies said today.

The Fourth Annual Hudson Ferry-Go-Round will take place from 11 a.m. until 6 p.m., with free shuttle busses carrying people from the ferry docks to special events such as concerts, arts shows and food festivals expected to be held in each town.

“The Hudson River is one of the world’s most beautiful waterways and the Ferry-Go-Round is a great way for people to rediscover the river and the historic towns along its shores,” said Martin Ginsburg, founder and principal of GDC, which is based in Valhalla, N.Y., and active throughout the Hudson Valley. “Ferry-Go-Round has become very popular during the past few years, with people taking as many as 10,000 boat rides in a single day. It’s great fun for people of all ages and we expect an even larger turnout this year.”
